The COGWEB Art® is a cognitive training tool designed and developed to train constructive ability and executive functions. The COGWEB Art® is a cognitive training tool designed and developed to train constructive ability and executive functions. This book in particular includes a set of thirty puzzle pieces, to solve 2D and 3D exercises. It also comprises 80 exercises, chosen from a group of 300 exercises that are available in the online training system. For each proposed exercise are presented on the same page two projections of the object to build. The exercises are distributed by levels: Easy (1 and 2), Intermediate (3 and 4) and Difficult (5 and 6), and they are meant for a daily based training activity.
