Former piano prodigy Nastya Kashnikov only wants two things: finish high school without anyone finding out about her past and making the boy who took everything from her pay for what he did. Josh Bennett's story is no secret. All he wants to be is left alone. Everyone seems to understand this except Nastya. Reluctant at first, Josh begins to let her in. As their relationship intensifies, she becomes more of an enigma to him. As he tries to discover who she is, he must decide if he truly wants to know the answer. This profound novel is all about second chances.
