How to Draw a Tulip Stephen Bucaro
The tulip is the second most popular flower, after the rose. People love the deep colors and wonderful fragrance of the flowers. Tulips are fun and easy to draw if you understand the basic structure of the flower. There are many "how to draw" books that show you how to easily draw an iconic tulip, or how to draw one exactly like their example.

This book teaches you basic structure of a tulip. The pistil and stamen, the number of petals, and the arrangement of the pedals. If you understand the basic structure of the tulip, you can draw many different realistic looking tulips just the way you want them.

After teaching you the anatomy of a tulip, this book shows you how to draw a realistic colorful tulip in 10 easy steps. You also get 20 different clip art tulips to see what kind of variations to can make in your own tulip drawings. And you'll have fun inventing your own variations.
