No Lipstick in Avalon Robert Ford
SARA’S LAW #227: If you write the fairy tale in your head, sometimes that’s exactly where it will remain. Life sure has its share of shit storms, doesn’t it? Believe me, I know. But if you grab a good umbrella and brace yourself, you can weather damn near anything. My umbrella of choice—after I finally decided to pull up my big girl panties—was my friends, tequila, and some creative inspiration, though not necessarily in that order. So grab a drink and pull up a barstool. Come closer because there’s a lot I want to tell you. Some lessons learned from the school of hard knocks and ways to hang onto hope. Some of it’s bad and a lot of it’s good. But I promise you this, love... one way or another, it all works out. Somehow... it always works out.

Cheryl Burnett:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this No Lipstick in Avalon can make you feel more interested to read.
