Hattie Black
Mr Pierce was kissing me, he was actually kissing me and it felt good. Then he started caressing my cheek slowly, then my neck. I was not even sure how to react. This cold boss of mine was kissing me, touching my face and neck. Then he was caressing my side. He caress was magical. It sent shivers down my spine and ripples of pleasure around my body. He pulled me closer to me and deepened the kiss. My hands hung at my side awkwardly. I was not sure if I was supposed to touch him.

When he broke off the kiss, I stood there just staring him, panting. His green gaze was resting on my face. He looked hungry, hungry for me. It made me nervous and confused. I had no idea what had just happened. I had my hands in mid air with my palms up. I put them the back down. I scratched the back of my head. “Mr...” I drifted off. I could not even say anything. I sighed with pleasure, I turned on my heel and left the room.
