Real Estate Investing: Conquer Your Fear and Make Money in Real Estate!: Real Estate Books: Passive Income: Property Management, Property Investment, Property ... Freedom: How to Build Wealth Book 1) Amit Offir, Yaron Kendelker

This book was written in order to help you overcome fears that are stopping you from thinking like the wealthy in order to allow yourself to build financial freedom and do what you love while your money is working for you! If you didn't read the bestselling book "24/8 - The Secret for being Mega-Effective by Achieving More in Less Time", I recommend you read it and learn about the unique actions which I call "The Domino Reactions". "The Domino Reactions" are actions that will help you think differently and create various assets, be more accurate, more effective and faster than others, including your competitors. This way you will free some time to do things you love, and naturally, you'll be happier, healthier and more successful.

This book is designed to help you understand that a sense of abundance is the best thing you could do for yourselves and your family. In this book I will present to you a way to overcome the fears and beliefs that prevent us from succeeding, paralyses us and prevent us from achieving what we want; a way that will help you keep working hard for the money and achieve success with the help of income-producing real estate, which requires less engagement and effort. That will allow you to conduct yourself better and enjoy life more.

I don't want you to get the impression that this book will teach you how to be lazy, on the contrary! With this book, you will learn how to think differently and invest energy only in the most vital tasks, in order to free your time for what is really important.

Over the years I have been exploring in depth how to create passive income sources so I could travel more, go on luxury vacations and live a fulfilled life. I would like to share with you the insights that helped me build my life exactly as I dreamed. However, this book doesn't promise or guarantee your success. I can't promise you anything regarding your ability to achieve any results by using the ideas and methods that I teach and implement.

Your success depends only on your ability to persist, implement the methods and find what works for you and what suits you, by using your judgment.

Utilizing the material in this book will allow you to examine yourself and how your life is being conducted. You could determine if you conduct yourself out of fear and learn how to overcome these fears in order to achieve what you desire and reach the best results.

I hope this book will help you change your life and develop both on a business and personal levels, and thus, become a better person.

I thank you for buying this book and I will be happy to hear your feedback about it. Also, I will be very thankful if you could find a way to share with me stories and examples from your life, and if the book helped you, it would be great if you would recommend it to others – to read and use it.
