With this Study Guide and the DVD, John Piper walks study groups through each of the five points of Calvinism-Total depravity, Unconditional election, Limited atonement, Irresistible grace, Perseverance of the saints-discussing the implications and the issues from a fully biblical perspective. The guide focuses on Piper's sixteen, 30-minute DVD teachings, which cover topics that include the meaning of "total" in total depravity, doing missions when God is sovereign, Romans 9 and the two wills of God, and ten effects of believing the five points of Calvinism. This guided group study clarifies the all-important differences between Calvinism and Arminianism and calls believers to hold fast to biblical truth regarding God's saving work in his people's lives.
