A Silver Medallion (Crystal Moore Suspense) (Volume 2) James R. Callan
In 2015, young, naive Crystal Moore encounters a slave in Dallas, Texas -- a slave held not by chains, but by threats her two girls held hostage in the jungles of Mexico will be killed if she escapes. To Crystal, it's clear. The children must be rescued first, or the mother will never escape. Crystal would like to forget it, but her conscience will not let her. Her parents died when she was seven. Nothing could be done. But something can be done here. She goes to Mexico and secures the help of mysterious Juan Grande. If she succeeds, mother and children will be free -- but Crystal will have two powerful and ruthless men, one in Texas and one in Mexico. who will want her dead. The suspense doesn't end when the girls are rescued. The young female protagonist Crystal must now try to stay alive, as two assassins track here down in northeast Texas. And in the midst of this, the man who nearly destroyed her emotionally is coming back. Has Crystal gained the strength to fight back?
