Living Words in Ephesians Wayne Detzler
Every word of Scripture is important and while it can be argued that no word is more important than another, there are some words which are more full of meaning than others. From St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians, Detzler selects important words and in a simple and direct way explains their meaning. Seldom has a more useful and edifying book come into my hands . . . No one at any level of Christian growth and experience could fail to be helped and thrilled by this eminently useful book.—Evangelical Times Combines exegetical skill, racy and attractive presentation, and overall biblical balance.—Christian Graduate Dr. Detzler has a masterful use of illustration and anecdote to bring the meaning of the words to light.—Grace Magazine
