Jesse Greenhow doesn't want a wife. He doesn't want anyone coming and messing things up. Until he meets Malinna. Does she steal his heart or does he tackle fatherhood alone?

Montana Territory cattle rancher Jesse Greenhow has a daughter but no wife. His sister tells him that it's time to move on from his grief for the wife who recently died. The solution that she suggests: a mail-order bride. Jesse reluctantly agrees to follow her suggestion. When the stylish, well-educated Malinna McCourt alights from the train, he's sure that he's made a terrible mistake. Getting drunk on their wedding night doesn't improve the matrimonial prospects and Jesse decides that he must come to terms with their marriage in-name-only. But he hasn't reckoned on his new wife's indomitable spirit or his response to her charm and beauty. But when he realizes that his mail-order bride knows how to meet Montana on its demanding terms, he recognizes that his love and desire for her must be answered.
But does she feel the same, or is it too late?

AUTHOR'S NOTE: These are stand-alone stories with an HEA, so no cliff-hangers! Stories contain mature themes and language, and is intended for 18+ readers only.
