The Billionaire's Miracle - The Complete Collection

My boss, Joshua, was completely brilliant. He was a real role model to me: helping the poor survive in today's world, all with stylish flair and a genuine good heart. I knew our clients were safe in his hands, and soon, the business was thriving. I hadn't been working as a private investigator for very long, but I could already tell that Joshua was an incredible man.

I'd always had kind of a little crush on him, but I was finally starting to feel like he just might return my feelings. Joshua was cautious in love after a previous heartbreak left him devastated, but I was confident that I could help him turn everything around and love like never before. When we finally started dating, I was overjoyed. But it wasn't like I expected: dating Joshua turned out to be a lot harder than working for him.

Plus, I couldn't shake the idea that something was really wrong at work. Ever since Joshua started buying out debts to the local loan shark, the Fiorelli crime family was sniffing around our doorstep like they owned us. I had a bad feeling about them. And I had a worse feeling when another one of our employees was attacked, left in a coma.

I couldn't begin to imagine the dark happenings behind the attack, but as I was starting to discover, I still had a lot to learn. About life, about love, and most importantly, about Joshua. Would we survive this twisted web of addiction, mob drama, and violence? Or would it tear us apart, just like the mafia wanted?
