The Hell and the World Wang Yongli
Chun, a four-year-old girl, witnesses the killings of all her family members on the evening of the Moon Festival, during the middle of the Chinese Cultural Revolution. She survives because her parents protect her with their own bodies. For the next four years, Chun and her two dogs live together in a hole, surviving on food the villagers offer up as a sacrifice for Buddha statues at a temple. After the Cultural Revolution ends, Chun is adopted by Peng's family. A former Red Guard, Peng was sentenced to death for several crimes, including having killed twenty-one family members. Peng's son, Xiaohu, leaves home with Peng's diary. Chun follows, to bring Xiaohu home. But she is captured and sold several times by human slavers. Chun suffers through all kinds of hardship and bitterness, until at last she is rescued. After receiving Peng's diary, which Xiaohu has sent her, Chun at last understands the reason why Peng and his followers became so cruel and lawless. This amazing novel plays out over the years 1966 to 1996 in the suburbs of Beijing, China. About the Author: Wang Yongli, a Chinese writer and journalist, experienced three years of starvation, the Cultural Revolution and the economic reform period. As a chief editor of China Central Television, he reported many big events and won national prizes. He has written many books, including two English novels, Resuming a Secular Life and Scented Apricot Flowers, published in the British Commonwealth of Nations.
