Hunting Angel (A Divisa Novel) J.L. Weil
Chase Winters was the bane of my existence.

But he was also the lifeline of my heart and soul. Literally.

Things are steaming up between us, and between the sheets. When his lips weren't locked with mine, they were spewing verbal crap. Half the time I don't know whether to kiss him or slap him. Our bond was more than just being connected, we are soulbound. The closer we get, the stronger the bond takes hold and now-a-days it seemed we are inseparable.

There was a new addition to our little town, one that has all the Divisa's on guard – a hunter has taken up residency. This hunter was not just another threat, not when their identity hit a little close to home. Strife divides my neighbor's household surrounding this supposed enemy. Could they be friend or foe?

Chase's number one priority in all this as always, was to keep me safe.

Regardless of what Chase says, I am not the weak and fragile human they all think I am. And there was nothing I wouldn't do to keep Chase from harm. He might drive me up a freaking wall, but he was my pain in the ass. I wasn't about to sit back and let some hunter fire an arrow through his heart. Not if I could help it.

Then there was the one question that was on everyone's mind: Will the hunter kill us or save us…

Recommended for 16+ due to language and sexual content
