Puppy Parenting In An Apartment Cassie Leigh
PARENTING A PUPPY IS NOT EASY. Parenting a puppy in an apartment is even harder. No shoving the pup out the doggie door at three in the morning when it needs to go out. No letting the puppy bark itself out when it decides to throw a fit. No sipping your latte while watching the puppy run around the backyard and get its exercise. Parenting a puppy when you live in an apartment is a very hands-on experience. A rewarding one, no doubt about it, but one with its own set of unique challenges. Puppy Parenting In An Apartment brings you some lessons from the trenches from an author who has been there, done that herself. A good read for prospective puppy parents as well as new ones.
