Toccata and Fugue

Colin Cohen

Toccata and Fugue Colin Cohen
Rupert Kern is a libertine US senator fighting for his political survival, who, after introducing a historic bill reforming the Federal Reserve, wakes one morning in the middle of the Mojave Desert. With his hand around a dead woman's throat. He and Penny Walden, his brilliant chief of staff—a woman with whom he's secretly in love—must discover how he got there and how tourists at a nearby attraction saw him the night before, in a place he'd never been. They must also learn the identity of the murdered woman and the murderer before the press finds out and torpedoes his reelection. And before the murderer finishes more than just his career. Loaded with humor, political intrigue, and romance, Colin Cohen's Toccata and Fugue is a comic mystery thriller in the tradition of Dashiell Hammett, Gregory Mcdonald, and Janet Evanovich. One that may even provoke a thought or two.
