Nobody said it would be easy . . . divorce. But now I see clearly and believe firmly Romans 8:28, “...all things work together for good to those who love God and are called according to His purpose.” The best guidance through the divorce adventure is found in scripture. You can go to counseling, read books, talk to friends and join groups. You can get depressed, get into debt, self-medicate, and procrastinate. You can start dating, overeat, not eat, or live in denial. I did – it didn’t help. Your motivation – your desire to move through this chapter of your life is all on you. The stories are true. They are my experiences – what I did, should have done, didn’t do, did too late, wouldn’t do again, wish I had never done, can’t wait to do again. Each letter in the word D-I-V-O-R-C-E focuses on an important aspect of the divorce experience and what God's Word has to offer as encouragement and guidance.
