Born in Mystery: The Braddacks (Volume 3) Susan Kearney
A stalker has Summer Warren desperate. So she quits her job, changes apartments, and assumes a new identity . . . as a surrogate mother. Yet when the stalker finds her again, she has no choice but to seek protection from the babies' biological father.

Craig Braddack doesn't know what to think of the leather-clad, motorcycle-riding hot mama that shows up on his doorstep demanding that he protect her and his twins. While he's suspicious of her story, his fierce protective instincts for his children kick into overdrive when the stalker returns.

Craig tells himself that his desire for Summer is just chemistry . . . albeit sizzling chemistry. And he wishes he could trust her . . . if only she hadn't lied to him. Twice. But it will take more than trust to keep Summer and his babies alive. They must work together to out the stalker . . . or die trying.
