Amy Hough has just turned 18 and is about to get tested to see if she is one of very few women left in the world that is capable of bearing young. She comes from a poor family and hates the ultra rich that control the world now. But when she gets an unbelievable offer from one of those ultra powerful men that she hates so much, she decides she is going to try and stomach her disdain and sacrifice herself for the sake of her family.

Grayson Chandler is an alpha male and self made trillionaire who has gotten to where he is by always taking what he wants. But lately he's grown tired of his endless female playmates, and is starting to feel the biological imperative to raise children. When looking at Amy's picture, he becomes infatuated. Given her background and personality, he doubts that she could possibly become his wife, but he decides that he must have her, if only for a little while.

Amy desperately wants to push aside her hatred for him and please Grayson enough to earn the support of her family, but the further Grayson takes her into his dark appetites the harder it becomes...
