P.I. Bill Miller takes on a seemingly straightforward case, only to find himself wandering through a twisted trail of deceit as people begin dying around him. To complicate matters further, he finds himself attracted to his client, a lady of mystery who is definitely not on the level. When unknown thugs threaten him, he begins to wonder – were they sent by her husband or by the mob? The case takes on even deadlier dimensions than he had imagined as Harlem’s Passionate Rage explodes and Bill and his friends become caught up in a gang war over drug dealing.

The mystery lady’s husband is murdered and she disappears, but not before leaving Bill with a huge pile of money. Bill uses his stake to open his own detective agency, and soon becomes well-known throughout New York City for cracking the toughest cases.

Blending elements of human drama and realistic settings, author Glenn Michael Ragland has penned a romantically suspenseful, fast-paced novel sure to please the most discriminating palate.
