Hirhurim: Sefer Shira - Reflections: Book of Poetry (Hebrew Edition) Haim Schneider
The meaning of life, the greatness of man, the frailty of existence...

Reflections gives fresh expression to eternal questions. As the poems weave between the mundane and the abstract, the reader joins with the author in reflecting upon the human condition and though the prognosis may be dire, we are never allowed to lose spirit.

Yet as the author concludes: One of the few good reasons to want to go on existing is the curiosity, the pure curiosity to learn how all this will end: with a bang or with a whimper.
