I Was Lost, But Now I'm Found: A Present Day Christian Romance Story About Redemption (Religious Love) Catherine Fey
This is a 14,943 word fiction Christian Romance/Life Redemption novellete. The time is present day. Michael Weston has served his country with distinction and honor, but has returned home with very little faith in God. His soul is darkened by the things that he has done and seen overseas, and he finds himself racked with guilt, so much so that he has turned to the bottle and a very strong drug. After returning home, he finds that even though he is a war hero, people looked down upon him as if he is something that they can scrape off the bottom of their shoe. A small kitten comes into his life, and soon after that a good Christian woman begins to see him as more than just a damaged soul. Michael will soon realize a divine change in his life.
