Great Value THREE book box set!
Join the brave and loving women in these three stories who head west to Colorado as Mail Order Brides in search of loving men and new beginnings. These three women place their future in God's hands and travel west to find true love.

Amelia: A Schoolteacher for the Lonely Farmer and His Little Girl
The year is 1884 and Amelia, a young schoolteacher from Boston, aches for a family of her own. Amelia accepts Elijah Steeley's proposal and agrees to move to Colorado to be his wife and a mother to his five year old daughter, Sallie.

Sallie is a child who barely speaks. Can she speak or is she still traumatized from the sickness and death of her mother a year earlier? Elijah is worried about his little girl and hopes a new Ma will help her.

Susannah: A Widow Finds Her True Love, Despite Family Conflicts
It's 1886 and Susannah Larkin's husband, George, has been killed during a bank robbery. George has left her with two young children to raise and heaps of gambling debt. Sure, George's mother, Maye, is wealthy and could help her and the children, but there will be strings attached. Susannah is determined that Maye will not take over her children's upbringing.

Jeremiah is a shopkeeper with two teenage children. Will he be a better husband to Susannah than George was?

When Maye finds Susannah, will she follow through with her threat to gain custody of the children?

Isabel: Kidnapped and Injured on the Way to Her Lonely Doctor
It's 1891 and Isabel Pelton has outgrown the orphanage that has been her home for the last eight years. She decides to take the advice of Sister Margaret and look into becoming a mail order bride.

Robert is a lonely young doctor, new to the town of Boulder. There's nothing he wants more than to share his life with a Godly, loving woman.

Will a kidnapping and injuries stand in the way of Robert and Isabel's happiness?
