Done Ashara, Lil Miss Dottie The Word Stylist
Ava Arrington is fed up with her arrogant husband, Jordan, and the abuse he controls her with. But turnabout is fair play…or is it? Ava's not as innocent as she claims to be with a few skeletons in her own closet, and her life really begins to spiral out of control after a visit to the emergency room results in a devastating discovery about her marriage. Jordan loves his wife, he thinks, and he also loves his coveted leadership position in church. Image is everything, so he has to work overtime to hide his dark side and his side entrée, Sydney, from the saints he needs to impress to gain the next promotion at Trinity Christian. Jordan's quest for power and prestige may be delayed when his secret life begins to unravel in front of his eyes. Sydney realizes that Jordan is married, but she is convinced he deserves someone better than his ungrateful wife! Struggling to raise her three kids with her mom in a double-wide trailer is not the life she knows God wants her to have, so Sydney concocts the perfect plan to create the perfect life…she and Jordan belong together! Hold onto you straightjackets as Ava, Jordan, and Sydney learn to love, forgive and trust God in spite of insanity!
