Taking turns with actors, doctors, college sapphists, and even an anatomically herculean boxers, Claudia is subjected to wave after wave of orgiastic bliss, as she makes her way from country girl to city debutante. And what if she earns some money on the way plying her trade skills in a morally questionable massage parlor? All the better her education for it.

The Adventures of Claudia, pseudonymously written during the 1930's, propels the reader through America's post-roaring dens of debauchery. Sumptuously described in graphic detail this edition will be sure to pique many an interest.
