Stay Mad! Observations of a Proletarian David Graham
This book is not a call for violence or revolution. This book calls for tea partiers to take their anger with them to the ballot box in 2012 like they did in 2010. A book that goes through a litany of circumstances contributing to the current state of the Nation. From an explanation of American exceptionalism, to creeping socialism into communism. This book deals frankly with so-called racism as observed by the author. Other things covered as observed and researched are elements of Islam and the continuing creep of Shariah law. It finishes with the shining hope of the Tea Party. You can't read this book and still not vote. Good luck to all of us.
