Student Lamps of the Victorian Era Richard C. Miller, John Solverson
Student Lamps of the Victorian Era meets a long-felt need among antique lighting collectors for a comprehensive guide to the subject. There are scores of black and white pictures from sales catalogs and early advertisements. Outstanding photographs of the authors' lamps appear on 60 pages of breathtaking color. Six of those pages are devoted just to colored shades and chimneys. Special attention is given to the variety of decorative techniques used in the manufacture of student lamps. There are detailed descriptions of each lamp pictured.
