Why Did the Messiah Curse the Fig Tree? John Keyser
Yeshua's enigmatic cursing of the fig tree on the road from Bethany has baffled students of the Bible for centuries! Why did the tree have leaves when it was "out of season" and not yet time for new growth? And why did the Messiah curse the fig tree when he fully realized -- before he even approached it -- that it would have no fruit? Read about the origin of the fig tree and the high esteem in which it was (and still is) held by some of the oldest civilizations on earth! Discover the mind-boggling symbolism that surrounds this tree -- and why the fig tree is also representative of the Ecclesia of YEHOVAH God today! The withering of that fig tree was an important highlight in the stream of events being fulfilled during our Savior's last days on planet earth before being crucified, and stoned, on the Mount of Olives -- probably within a very few yards of the fig tree itself!
