Exquisite Enterprise Jerry Taylor
Raven Lynn Moore, aka Red, a “high yellow,” sexy, once upon a time chef turned exotic dancer, meets an attractive, mysterious man who goes by the street name JT. He’s the kind of man she thought would only visit her in her dreams. Wanting to be a part of his world, she holds nothing back, especially after he makes her number one dream come true—to own a high-end fashion boutique. First accepting, and then becoming involved in his dangerous world of women, drugs, and violence, Red learns of JT’s tyrannical ways, experiences her dream life, and meets Shane, a soon to be pro basketball player who tries to become more than a friend. The Federal Government has other ideas, and a near-death tragedy might make her lose the final piece of the puzzle that will fit her together with the man of her dreams. After all of the drama, she prevails, and her loyalty stays strong. Jerard Tyler, aka JT, is a boss of many, a notorious twenty-four seven successful entrepreneur in construction, land care services, and entertainment. As a Gemini, he has another side: he is the controlling force behind a lucrative drug operation. When the drug trafficking and murder rates increase, both the State of Texas and the Federal Government want answers. If one hasn’t been through the fire with JT, trust isn’t an option. That’s why, other than his immediate family, his team of women, who risk their lives daily, keep his company. Being the female connoisseur that he is, he instantly knows Red will be a valuable asset to his bona fide despot Exquisite Enterprise.
