Mormons: What Do They Believe? (Cults and Isms Book 8) Val Waldeck
The "Mormons" prefer to be called "The Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints".

They are divided into two major groups - The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (with headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah).. and The Reorganised Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (with headquarters in Independence, Missouri. Each charge the other as being "schismatic" and each claim to be "the true church".

The Mormons are very zealous evangelists and encourage their young people to dedicate two years of their lives to missionary work on a self-supporting basis. Mormons are strongly encouraged to live exemplary lives and to preserve their bodies in the best of health, avoiding the use of tobacco, alcohol, tea, coffee, etc. They are also great Temple and Chapel builders.

Who are they? And what do they believe?

Mormons: What Do They Believe? compares the teaching of this group with basic fundamental Biblical doctrine. This eBook is not designed to ridicule or scorn the teaching of those who differ in faith and doctrine, but to examine teaching that claims to either hold to orthodox Biblical Christian doctrine or claim that their movement accommodates Biblical Christianity.

Available material was researched and leading people interviewed, where possible. The conclusions drawn in this ebook about the Mormons movement are based on information made available and every effort has been made to present the material as accurately as possible.

The battle today is for the mind of men, women and children and we need, more than ever, to keep our attention focused on THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.. "Looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith" (Heb. 12:2).
