My Diary's Crushh: Memoreal Amy Devenance
It's about someone who a small town girl fell in love with. She loved him since she first meet him, but sometimes things just don't work out at first. And you're left with a choice of leaving or staying. It's about cherishing the time you have, chasing after your dream, or letting it go. Sometimes you hold on too tight to something you want and I guess that where the problems started. However, sometimes when things go wrong, and you think you're lost, you're really not, but just on a perfect fantasy journey through a war you wish never was. Through that journey you make mistakes, make the right choices, and learn lessons that will make you a better person in thee end. I guess if you look over something to quickly, we all will miss the point . . . The point being she never gave up. and at thee end you're happy you tried even if you failed first time, first chances, but don't fret. cause it never ends . . . It's just the beginning of thee journey to your dream and happy. well happiness of becoming who you were meant to be . . . giving up is a choice not a force . . . but if you hold on dreams come true in time.
