Reckless Road. Guns N' Roses. E O Making Of Do Album Appetite For Destruction (Em Portuguese do Brasil) Marc Canter
Quando o adolescente e fotógrafo amador Marc Canter começou a documentar a ascensão de seu melhor amigo Saul Hudson como um guitarrista de rock em 1982, ele não imaginava que na verdade estava documentando a gênese da próxima banda de rock da era. Seu amigo tornou-se o legendário guitarrista Slash, e o sr. Canter se viu na frente e no centro, testemunhando a criação do Guns N´Roses e a produção de seu álbum lendário Apetite for Destruction. O sr. Canter, com a ajuda de Jack Lue, fotografou cada show feito pela banda, desde seu primeiro show juntos, em 6 de junho de 1985, no Troubadour, até sua última performance no Sunset Strip, em 1987, antes de sua turnê internacional como novos artistas da Geffen Records. Essas fotografias capturam suas performances cruas, sangue-suor-e-lágrimas, bem como seus momentos íntimos. Definitivamente, Reckless Road - Guns N´Roses e o Making Off do Álbum Appetite for Destruction é a crônica do início de uma banda que se tornou conhecida como a banda mais perigosa do mundo e revela a jornada musical de cinco músicos que se reuniram para mudar a atitude do rock n´roll. Memórias originais de filipetas de show, ingressos, canhotos, listas de músicas de palco, recortes de matérias da imprensa e letras de música escritas à mão compreendem esta coleção singular, e o sr. Canter teve a antevisão de gravar em audio e vídeo muitas das performances. Entrevistas minuciosas com membros da banda e pessoas que estavam próximas a eles oferecem uma perspectiva explícita em primeira pessoa do que os leitores não encontrarão em nenhum outro lugar. Reckless Road - Guns n´n Roses e o Making Of do Álbum Appetite for Destruction deixa um legado bem documentado que poucas bandas podem se gabar de possuir.
