Twelve stories based on special themes have been included in this book.
All of us, whether young or old would desire to listen to stories. Some stories bring us fright. We have also listened to stories that have made us happy and also unhappy. But when we hear of stories where somebody has been victorious, it gives us a feeling of courage and strength.
Stories which are able to stimulate our mental faculty and gives us mental strength are being created all over the world. It is the confirmed view of scientists that these stories promote a sense of positive thinking towards social, economic and spiritual development within man.
Twelve stories based on special themes have been included in this book. It is my fervent belief that these stories would go a long way in tackling certain problems which you may face on your journey in life. The book would also assist students as well as elders to manage his or her life in a proper manner.
