The Atlantic Crossing Guide: Rcc Pilotage Foundation Anne Hammick
The third edition of a popular reference book for all those planning a cross-Atlantic passage within an area bounded by Scotland, South Africa, Grenada and Newfoundland. It reflects the continuing development of cruising yachts and their gear as well as the many changes in shoreside facilities. It is full of practical advice on choosing and equipping a suitable boat, provisioning, navigation, safety, route planning, landfalls and port details and for the first time some South Atlantic routes, harbours and anchorages are included. Appendices include a list of European and American VHF frequencies, a bibliography of relevant pilot books and a glossary of British and American sailing terms.
