The Very Best of Divorce in Connecticut: A Blog located online at: www.divorceinconnecticut.blogspot.com Catharine Sloper
This book is based upon the Divorce in Connecticut blog which speaks out about the corruption and wrongdoing in family court among judges, attorneys, and mental health professionals. The improper actions of these unethical court professionals have placed vulnerable children in the hands of abusers and driven many parents to the brink of financial ruin. The book includes a wide ranging selection of the very best of the Divorce in Connecticut blogs sharing practical advice, guidance, and detailed overviews of prominent divorce cases that provide insight into the legal process. These blogs provide essential information to current and future litigants on how to survive a high conflict divorce to the best of their ability. At the same time, the book sends out a warning to the citizens of Connecticut that our family court system is deeply flawed and in dire need of reform.
