In this Night We Own (The Commander Book 6) Randall Farmer
Book Six of "The Commander"
Carol Hancock is a victim of Transform Sickness and a Major Transform, an Arm. Established now with a territory in Houston, Carol works under orders from the senior Arm, Stacy Keaton, to gather an army to fight their major enemy, the male Major Transforms known of as the Hunters, and their boss, the secretive Major Transform known of as Wandering Shade. As she works on this project, Carol also seeks restitution from the leading Focus, Tonya Biggioni, for the many problems Tonya has caused Carol.

Tonya is on the bad side of the Focus Council for lying about her part in Carol's rescue from incarceration. They give her two nearly impossible jobs, one to bring the Arms back under the control of the Focus Council, and the second, to take over the running of the Focus Mentoring organization. Complicating matters is the fact that Focus Lori Rizzari, a close friend of Carol's, is running against Tonya for Tonya's Council seat, pushing a revolutionary agenda that would upset the balance of power among the senior Focuses.

Tonya's Focus Mentoring work will bring her into contact with a talented and idealistic young Focus, Gail Rickenbach, who she befriends. In addition, a group of Male Major Transforms named the Nobles want to prove themselves as 'good guys' to the Transform community, and undertake a quest to rescue a lost Major Transform Sport.

The collision of all of these forces will change the Transform community forever.
