Writings from Middle School Geniuses 2016 (Volume 1) John E. Stack
This book is a compilation of stories written by students at Kernersville Middle School in Kernersville, North Carolina, and was a mixture of 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students. The entire school participated in a project called Genius Hour, where Mr. Christopher Walsh and I were blessed to work with students who had a desire to write. Mr. Walsh, who teaches Language Arts, talked of proper grammar, and punctuation. I was able to explain the process of publishing, and a publisher's expectations, along with some of my experiences. So, with a few pointers and a little direction, most of the students took to writing like it was their sole purpose in life. We met once a month as a class, but many of the groups met after school and on weekends to continue their work. Even though they do not understand deadlines, I was very proud to work with and sponsor this group of students. We hope you enjoying reading their works.
