In your hands you hold a collection of God given, Spirit filled and anointed poetry that will not only touch your heart, but fill your soul. Within these pages are pieces such as: "He's God" and "Jesus Enough" that will uplift and encourage any downcast spirit. You'll find yourself laughing, crying and you'll certainly find yourself reciting some of these works of art.This collection of poetry will help to deliver and set your spirit free. It is liberating and honest, enabling us to take a look at ourselves and know, from whence cometh our help. These anointed pieces will help to remind you of the power of God and that nothing is too hard for God."Tina is an artist. With her poetic words she paints pictures of her soul for all of us to see and hear."Pastor Beverly A. DavisPastor of Women's Ministries, New Creation Church of San Diego"Tina's poems are truly inspirational and good spiritual food. Because of her strong dependence on the Bible, her poems are like bible study that rhymes. These poems can preach."Miles McPherson, Sr. Pastor of the Rock Church"In the pages of this work one can find a compass for their way, a light for their path, and courage for their cares.Tina McNeil has allowed the God of her faith to speak clearly, to all those that would hear, a message that stimulates the idea that life has a meaning far deeper than its known realities.In a world that sometimes seems to have lost its rhyme and reason, it's good to know that through the creative minds of Gods people, poetry and verse remain.Embracing this work will provide food for your soul, energy for your hands, and fuel for your faith.Life is indeed, poetry in motion!"Pastor Reginald L.
