Organizations on the Couch: Clinical Perspectives on Organizational Behavior and Change (Jossey Bass Business and Management Series) Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries
In this text, specialists in psychoanalysis and organizational behaviour demonstrate how the psychoanalytic perspective can be successfully applied to analyzing and changing unhealthy but deeply-rooted organizational behaviours, such as addiction to power and the undermining of personal responsibility. Offering in-depth case examples, they help managers and consultants deepen their understanding of organizational culture and decision making, leader/follower dynamics, organizational stress, and other factors that affect efforts to create change.
