Echo of a Song Sher Kyweriga
Meg Jacobi obsesses about being a success. No matter what the cost, she is going to be somebody important, and she is willing to pay the price. Her philosophy is, “when life gives you lemons, fight to get your fair share, do your damnedest to make a buck, and don’t let anyone get in your way.” Meg refuses to end up like her mother—hooked on a dream, and dead at 36. But lately the nightmares have returned, and when Meg receives a mysterious package in the mail and an unwanted visitor on her doorstep, she has two choices. Face the music, or begin a new life. Echo of a Song is a love story about the relationships we never lose and the new relationships that keep us going when we don’t believe we can take one more step.
