Reflections Poetry by Kate Bygrave
Well firstly let me thank you for buying my book, it means a lot to me and I hope you enjoy it. I started writing poems when I was about 8 years old; I produced my own poetry book at the age of 9, made copies and handed them out around my primary school. Moving into my secondary school days I lost the excitement for writing poetry and began to write short stories about weird and wonderful worlds. Despite obviously being into writing at a very young age, this slipped my mind when deciding a subject to study at university as I went on to get a 2.1 in Forensic Science. Now living in London I have re-kindled my love for writing resulting in this light poetry book written as I reflected over my life thus far. Enjoy.
