What Is Free Will?

Rev DANIEL A. LORD S.J.

What Is Free Will? Rev DANIEL A. LORD S.J.
This booklet deals solely with one point, viz., why God's foreknowledge does not prejudice the freedom of will with which man has been endowed.

DICK of the Bradley twins was completely puzzled. He stated his problem almost indignantly. "This free will business —," he said, in broken sentences, "I don't get it. It doesn't make sense. How come?" "He means," explained Sue, the other half of the twinship, "that everywhere you go people pop free will at you. And we don't know the answers." "Maybe I'd know them," said Father Hall, filling his pipe, "if I knew the questions. What's wrong with free will?" "Just everything" said Dick, now quite savage: "It just doesn't work out. There are these poor morons and these people brought up in the slums. Free will? For them? Bosh! And besides, God knows whether I'm going to heaven or to hell, doesn't He?" "Certainly." "That's let me out," said Dick, shrugging hopelessly. "He knows, and nothing that I do is going to alter that. He sees that some day I will be in heaven or hell. And all my efforts won't change my destination."
